Police Hold Drifter In Chicago Murders

CHICAGO (AP) — Richard Speck, the most wanted man in the country for 15 hours, lay in a prison hospital bed charged with murder today while police pieced together the story behind the massacre of eight student nurses.

Speck, a 25-year-old ex-convict, spent his last hours drinking and carousing before he attempted — unsuccessfully — to end his life, Sunday.

In an ironic twist, the fugitive whose name and picture were flashed around the world was taken to a hospital by policemen who didn't recognize him.

Bombers Pound Another North Viet Oil Depot

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Fifteen waves of American bombers pounded a major oil depot in North Viet Nam Sunday and touched off 35 fires and 51 explosions in the big storage complex, the U.S. military command reported today.

U.S. Air Force jets struck the Badon fuel depot 20 miles northwest of Dong Hoi while other Air Force planes hit another oil storage area one mile east of Badon.

In South Viet Nam, fighting died down in the combined U.S. Marine-South Vietnamese drive against an estimated 2,000 North Vietnamese army regulars eight miles south of the demilitarized zone separating North and South Viet Nam.

U.S. headquarters reported two small-scale probing attacks by the North Vietnamese today. The South Vietnamese said their force had no contact with the enemy. Earlier in the operation, which began Friday, 167 Reds were reported killed.

Allied casualties were reported light, but 13 Marines were killed when the Communists shot down a Marine CH-46 troop-carrying helicopter at the start of the operation.

Slayer Suspect Flashed Knife In Copper Area Bar

HANCOCK (AP) — Suspected mass-slayer Richard B. Speck while recovering from an emergency appendectomy in May, pulled a knife on a patron of an area bar, the girl he dated said Sunday.

Judy Laakaniemi, a nurse at St. Joseph's Hospital in neighboring Houghton, said that was the only unpleasant incident during her dates with Speck, whose life had been saved earlier by a surgeon at the hospital.

The girl said Speck drew his knife during an argument with another patron of the bar, but put it away when she asked him to.

Doctors at St. Joseph's described Sunday their operation on Speck's appendix after the accused slayer was removed from an Inland Steamship Co. ore carrier May 3.

"It was a red hot appendix, ready to burst," said Dr. Paul Goodreau, who assisted Dr. A.D. Aldrich in the surgery. "The operation had to be performed as fast as possible."

The boat radioed the Hancock Coast Guard station and asked for a craft to take Speck to a hospital. Cmdr. David Freeborn of the station recalled.

U.S. To Aid In Copper Search

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government announced Sunday night it will pay up to 50 per cent of the cost of exploration for new sources of copper in an effort to increase supplies of the scarce metal.

J. Cordell Moore, assistant secretary of the Interior for mineral resources, noted that the government shares the cost of exploration for 56 mineral commodities in order to encourage domestic production.

"This program carried out by the geological survey makes financial assistance available to those who would not ordinarily undertake the proposed exploration work at their sole expense, and who are unable to obtain the necessary finances on reasonable terms from commercial sources," Moore said.

The federal funds are repaid by a royalty on any production resulting from the exploration.

Cavanagh Tries New Williams Debate Offer

By The Associated Press

Jerome P. Cavanagh is pushing harder for a debate with a political foe who outwardly declines to acknowledge the Detroit mayor's senatorial candidacy.

Cavanagh Sunday telegraphed a challenge to G. Mennen Williams to debate Viet Nam, the main issue of their campaign for Democratic U.S. Senate nomination.

Williams so far has refused—or ignored—all of Cavanagh's offers to debate.

The Detroit mayor said he would send more such challenges to Williams in the two weeks remaining before the Aug. 2 primary election.

"I am aware that the ex-governor, at this time, does not want to debate all the issues of this campaign," Cavanagh said Sunday. "Therefore I offer him the opportunity to debate on the war in Viet Nam, to the exclusion of all other issues."

Cavanagh told Williams "you have, without reservation, completely supported President Johnson's conduct of the war. I have not."

"You supported further escalation of the war. I fear that escalation will inevitably lead to a ground war with Red China," Cavanagh said.

Williams told picknickers at a United Auto Workers outing in Belleville that, if elected to the Senate, he would strive to improve benefits for retired, elderly persons.

He said social security benefits should include an automatic cost of living adjustment or an automatic adjustment based on increased national earnings.

Williams today was to speak to UAW workers and greet shoppers in Flint.

Cavanagh planned to address conventions of paralyzed war veterans and motion picture machine operators in Detroit. Griffin scheduled a visit to a Ford plant gate in Dearborn and a number of talks.

Ethics Group To Hear Klein

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two widely different wars — the war in Viet Nam and the war on poverty — keep the House busy this week while the Senate tackles the controversial foreign aid program.

The busy congressional week also brings lobbyist Julius Klein before the Senate Ethics Committee Tuesday to tell of his relations with Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn.

The House is expected to provide funds to finance the Viet Nam war and run the Defense Department with little or no dissent when it takes up the $58.6-billion defense appropriation bill Tuesday.

But sharp fighting could break out Wednesday and last the rest of the week when the House is asked to authorize $1.75 billion to carry the anti-poverty program through its third year.

Gemini 10 Ready For Afternoon Blast Off

Facts On Today's Gemini 10 Flight

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Here are the facts and figures about the Gemini 10 flight scheduled to start today:

Astronauts: Navy Cmdr. John W. Young and Air Force Maj. Michael Collins, both 35.

Launch times: Atlas to boost Agena target satellite at 4:40 p.m. EDT. Titan 2 to boost Gemini 10 at 6:21 p.m. EDT.

Length of flight: 70 hours, 17 minutes.

Goals: Rendezvous and dock with Agena, using its engine to maneuver for later rendezvous with an Agena left in space last March by the Gemini 8 flight; Two extravehicular sessions by Collins; 14 scientific and technological experiments.

John Young

Michael Collins

NAVY CMDR. John W. Young, left, and Air Force Maj. Michael Collins are the astronauts scheduled to go into orbit late this afternoon with Gemini 10.

Young, Collins To Reach New Record Height

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Two launch pads buzzed with activity today as the Gemini 10 astronauts, relaxed and ready, prepared to ride into space today on a daring dual-rendezvous and space-walk adventure that could take them deeper into space than any man has ventured.

While Navy Cmdr. John W. Young and Air Force Maj. Michael Collins slept late, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported everything was progressing smoothly for the double launching.

The countdown on an Atlas rocket started right on time at 9:31 a.m. (EDT). The Atlas is to make a fiery department from its pad at 4:40 p.m. to hurl an Agena space vehicle into orbit as a chase target for the astronauts.

On another launch pad 6,000 feet away, crews began pouring tons of fuel into a Titan 2 that is to hurl Young and Collins into space at 6:21 p.m. to start the dramatic chase across the skies.

Numerous clouds hovered in the Cape Kennedy area this morning, but weathermen predicted favorable conditions at launch time. The forecast called for partly cloudy skies, surface winds of 10 knots and gentle seas offshore and less than 15 per cent possibility of thunderstorms.

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Relaxed by a day of fishing, two primed astronauts were ready to ride the Gemini 10 spacecraft today on a bold dual-rendezvous and space-walk adventure that could take them farther from earth than man has yet ventured.

Navy Cmdr. John W. Young, veteran of last year's Gemini 3 flight, and Air Force Maj. Michael Collins had most of the day to prepare for their three-day journey among the stars.

Their Titan 2 was scheduled to blast off at 6:21 p.m. EDT. An Atlas was to vault skyward 101 minutes earlier — at 4:40 p.m. — to hurl an Agena space vehicle into orbit as a chase target for the astronauts.

With all preparations proceeding smoothly, Young and Collins took a day off Sunday and went fishing in the Atlantic off Cape Kennedy.

Adjusting to a sleep schedule that will keep them up late each night in space, they retired about 3 a.m. this morning, and space officials hoped they'd sleep until after noon.

The late afternoon launch times were dictated by the position of another Agena left in space last March by the Gemini 8 pilots.

Record Altitude

After catching and linking up with their Agena late tonight, Young and Collins plan to fire the target satellite's powerful engine to shoot to a record altitude of perhaps 468 miles to position themselves for a tricky rendezvous with the Gemini 8 Agena Wednesday.

Collins is to take a space walk over to the old Agena — which he has dubbed a "dead bird" because it has no battery power. This is one of two 55-minute work periods he plans outside the Gemini 10 spacecraft. The first is to be a simple "stand up" maneuver Tuesday during which he'll open his hatch, poke the upper half of his body into space and conduct scientific and photographic experiments.

"Almost everything we do will be directly applicable to the Apollo man-to-the-moon program," commented command pilot Young. "Anything we learn about space flight also will be applied to planning for planetary missions."

Plot Own Course

At the outset of their flight, Young and Collins will try something new — do-it-yourself navigation. Using the spacecraft inertial guidance system, a sextant to make star and horizon readings, and a spacecraft computer, they'll plot the maneuvers needed to pursue Agena 10 over a 103,000-mile course, catching it after a five-hour chase during their fourth orbit 185 miles above the earth.

Mediators Try To Speed Pace Of Airline Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pessimistic negotiators predicted today the strike against five major airlines probably will last for at least another week.

Now in its 11th day, the strike has shut down all but national defense operations of the five lines and has inconvenienced travelers throughout the nation who have bagged other airlines as well as railroads and bus lines in an effort to carry out summer travel plans.

The chief union negotiator blamed the airlines for the slow pace of the talks.

"They keep their feet planted in the concrete," said Vice President Joseph Ramsey of the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists.

Ramsey said extensive layoffs and closing of ticket offices indicate the strike could go on "for an extended period of time."

Chief airline negotiator William Curtin commented, "We are a long way apart" as the negotiators walked into a meeting with Assistant Secretary of Labor James J. Reynolds.

Reynolds, who Sunday compared the pace of negotiations with the speed of two turtles, had no comment today.

Curtin said he saw no reason to expect an early settlement.

Ramsey said there has been no progress on one key point — the union's demand for a 36-month contract. The airlines want a 42-month agreement.

Three Saved By CG Helicopter

DETROIT (AP) — Three fishermen whose boat capsized Saturday said they were nearly 10 hours bobbing in Lake Erie before being spotted by a Coast Guard helicopter shortly before dark.

Loonie Mison, flying a routine "bay patrol" over the northern corner of the lake, spotted the three — Donald Bell, 29, and Gary Buchanan, 24, both of Detroit, and Dennis Foust, 22, of Dearborn.

The three and their launched a 12-foot aluminum boat near Grose Ile Saturday morning and it overturned and sank shortly afterward.

Rescuers Search Old Mine Shaft For Tot; No Hope She's Alive

CALUMET (AP) — Rescue workers today began removing chunks of a broken five-ton concrete slab, beneath which they hope to find the body of a 7-year-old girl who fell into an abandoned copper mine.

There appeared almost no hope that Ruth Ann Muier would still be alive.

Rescue teams working through the night, discovered a second cap on the mine shaft, about 400 feet below its mouth.

State police said workers could see the debris of the broken concrete shaft covering. They said it seems that Ruth Ann had fallen to the 400-foot slab and was then buried beneath the cap, which fell into the shaft when rescue workers tried to remove it.

"There's no hope," Eugene Taylor, the girl's stepfather said Sunday. "It's a straight shaft—straight down."

Rescue operations began Saturday night when the girl's brother Gary, 10, told his parents Ruth Ann had plunged into the shaft when the ground gave way beneath her feet. The children had been picking berries near the mouth of the mine, abandoned in 1931.

Before the discovery of the 400-foot cap, workers said they expected to reach the surface of an underground pool about two-thirds of the way down the 3,000-foot shaft.

Guardsmen Pull Out, Chicago Scene Is Quiet

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO (AP) — With National Guardsmen withdrawn to armories, an extra alarm fire in a riot-torn district gave police a test today of their power to control disorders in emergencies.

In the early morning hours, 2,700 guardsmen were taken off West Side streets where they spent three nights on riot duty. They were ready to return tonight.

The fire started in the basement of a drugstore at 1259 W. Roosevelt Rd., target of looters during last week's disorders.

A crowd of 500 spectators gathered at the scene but they caused no trouble. At a fire last week, firemen were pelted with rocks as they fought a blaze in a Negro neighborhood.

The drugstore basement fire was extinguished in 1½ hours. The force of some 4,000 guardsmen was more than halved early today.

National Guardsmen patrolled the streets of Chicago's West Side early today, as the district appeared to be returning to normal after last week's rioting.

Some 2,700 guardsmen were ordered to stand by at Chicago armories by Maj. Gen. Francis P. Kane. However, Kane said he planned to have troops on the street again tonight.

Taverns and pool halls that had been closed were allowed to reopen by Chicago police, who warned they would be closed again if there was any disorder.

Meanwhile, the city moved to redress some of the grievances asserted by Negroes.

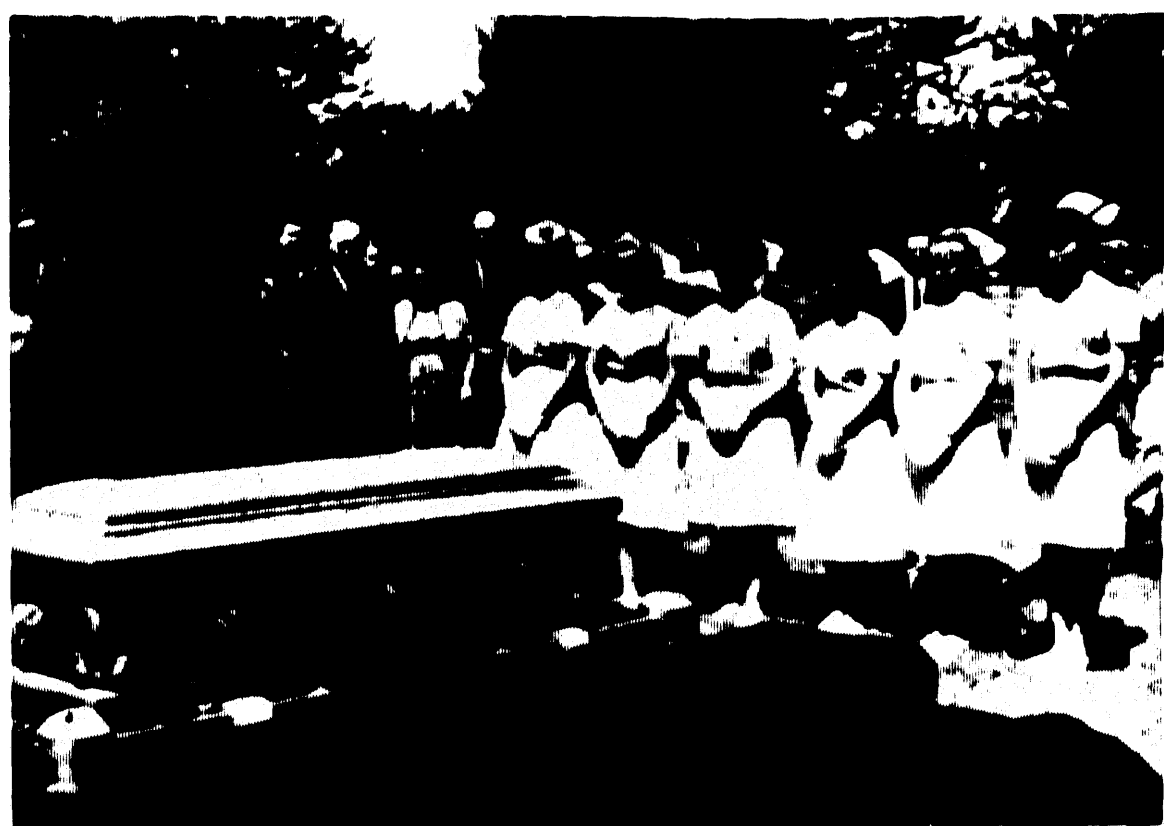

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who had been trying to initiate a campaign to aid slum dwellers, said he fears eruptions in the ghettos of every major city unless concrete preventive steps are taken quickly.

In San Francisco, police said Negro racists had failed to exploit an arson spree which followed the wounding of a Negro policeman early Sunday.

Negro youths set seven small fires with gasoline bombs. The trouble, soon controlled by police, erupted after youths left a dance at an Afro-American cultural center not far from the robbery scene.

Bus Driver Is Medicare Heir

Steve Simon, a long time resident of Wallace, Menominee County, was the first person to submit a medicare bill through the Social Security office in Escanaba.

Simon is well known to many Wallace area residents because for years he transported children to school, starting in 1928. First this was with a wagon and a canvas-covered sleigh, later by automobile. He changed his car into one of the first school buses and in 1944 a regular school bus was purchased.

By the time Simon retired from his bus driving, he had transported three generations in some families. After bus driving he worked a few years as school janitor. He retired in 1957 at the age of 71.

In 1952 and again in 1957 it was suggested that he undergo a nose operation to facilitate breathing but he never felt he had enough money for the operation. In the last five years Simon has limited his driving in an effort to save money for the operation.

On July 7, Simon entered the hospital for his operation, which was a success. And after years of saving he received a bonus. Medicare will help pay for some of the hospital and doctor bill.

Although Social Security records are ordinarily confidential, Simon gave permission to report his story to better acquaint others with medicare.

Whenever a person covered by medicare has an operation in a hospital, the hospital sends the bill in excess of the $40 deductible to Blue Cross. The patient and physician must agree on one of two methods of submitting a bill. The physician can bill Blue Shield, or, as in Simon's case, the patient can pay the bill and ask Blue Shield for reimbursement.

Women Called To Give Blood

In Delta County men outnumber women three to one as blood donors, reports the local chapter of the American Red Cross.

So, for the procurement clinic that will open at the James T. Jones School in Gladstone on Tuesday, the Red Cross is calling all women. The hours at Gladstone are 3 to 7 p.m.

The bloodmobile will move to Escanaba and the Teamsters Hall for clinics Wednesday, 2:30 to 7:30 p.m. and Thursday, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Delta County women need not feel their record as donors is too bad, however, for it is 15 per cent better than the national average, in which men outnumber women 4 to 1, the Red Cross reports.

In March of this year when Delta County produced an amazing 511 units of blood — 370 donors were men and 141 were women. In May, 228 men and 70 women donated.

"Keeping the house, rearing the children and being chief cook and bottle washer keeps the American woman busy every minute — at least while the children are in school, explained Mrs. Ed Olsen, Escanaba, Red Cross blood procurement chairman.

"Men normally do have an advantage when it comes to donating blood, as Red Cross bloodmobile visits are often scheduled in business areas where they are easily available.

Frequently employees give their staff time off to donate blood and actively promote blood collections," she said.

"During the summer, however, most women will have a chance to even the three-to-one score at the bloodmobile," she added.

The need for blood continues throughout the year, regardless of the season. The Red Cross notes that summertime brings an increase in accidents and suggests that donors give blood before they go on vacation — or while they are vacationing in Delta County.

Cavanagh's Visit

Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh said that he got better treatment from Democrats in the Upper Peninsula than he did in his home Wayne County, where the party organizations have endorsed his opponent for the Democratic nomination for U.S. senator in the Aug. 2 primary—former Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

Cavanagh said that there were indications that there had been downstate pressures to avoid Cavanagh, but that they hadn't done so. That's a generous view of the situation, but some Upper Peninsula Democrats who attended the poorly attended Cavanagh meetings last week weren't very happy about it.

They suggested that it's anyone's right to vote as he pleases and that Soapy Williams has become an odds-on favorite to win after his 6 terms in the governor's office, but that a challenger should be able to get a substantial hearing by the party. And Cavanagh didn't get this; he ran into a "We're for Soapy" attitude, expressed or implied, rather generally.

If Cavanagh had run against George Romney for the governor's job the Democrats would have been much more enthusiastic, but he chose to square off with their old champion, Soapy Williams, and Soapy has the inside track. That's natural after his long and troubled career in Michigan politics.

Jerry Cavanagh is a very able young (38) man who will certainly be heard from in politics, whatever the outcome of the August primary. He was given small chance to win the mayoralty in Detroit, but he won it and after he'd shown what he could do in the office, the people sent him back in with a walloping big margin. He is the president of the National League of Municipalities and of the U.S. Conference of Mayors.

He says that if Soapy Williams is elected it will be putting him out to pasture and that if he, Cavanagh, is elected he'll bring some ideas to Washington. He has shown the character of his politics in his campaign with his dissent from the Johnson Administration position in the war in Viet Nam. Soapy's contribution is general support of the Johnson Administration.

Labor, except for the Teamsters, is pretty much in Williams' corner and predicting that he'll beat Cavanagh badly. The impression is inescapable that this is the backward look and not the forward look, because in Williams we have the aging warrior who was once pro-labor and pro-welfare minded and who now wears a streak of conservatism in his graying hair. Cavanagh is a fire eater — progressive, activist, insisting that we have to have more education and that the people have to pay for it; that industry and labor can and must work together; that our war policy isn't realistic and can't win.

The Democrats will take no strength from defeat of Cavanagh by smothering his voice with party control—and he's saying that no one in Michigan Democracy should be given a blank check like that being written for Soapy. If Democrats elect to reject him after hearing him that would be another story, but there seems to be a fear that he might not be rejected if he were heard.

Pay hikes for most state officials went almost unnoticed while the debate over a salary raise for legislators gathered attention.

From the governor on down to the thousands of state employees, nearly every level gained boosts either by action of the legislature or the State Civil Service Commission.

Biggest hikes will go to the top officers. They begin next January. To the winners in the races for governor, secretary of state and attorney general will go $10,000 more than these officers now get annually. The new rates will set the governor's pay at $40,000 and the other two at $30,000.

Judges on the two highest courts, the Supreme and Appellate courts, will each get raises of $9,500. This sets the Supreme Court pay scale at $35,000 annually and the Appellate Court judges' salaries at $32,500.

Legislature — approved boosts for various state department heads were designed to meet Gov. George Romney's plea to pay administrators more than their highest level employer get under Civil Service rules.

Civil Service Commissioners came through on July 1 with what has become an annual boost in recent years, but the rate span covers a slightly higher range than previously. Classified employees this year got hikes ranging from 4 to 14 per cent.

Traffic safety field workers, if they can be called that, hoped for a full package of legislation to get through this year. They were disappointed on several counts.

One part of the safety package which did get through will affect every licensed driver of the present, and hopefully improve future generations of motorists.

The legislature imposed a $1 fee hike for obtaining and renewing driver licenses, setting the initial fee at $5.50 and the renewal rate of $4 every three years.

Additional revenue will go back to schools providing training to teenagers. The increase is expected to raise about $1.7 million annually.

Proponents of the hike had to fight hard for the increase, although they contended it should have sailed through without argument.

Hunting and fishing licenses, they noted as examples, usually cost more than the privilege to drive, although the former expires in a year or less. Driver licenses are good for three years.

Since driver training is now compulsory for teenagers to obtain a license, more schools are offering the course.

The state had indicated it would pay $30 for each student enrolled in driver training, but the funds coming in from license sales did not enable the state to fulfill this obligation.

Supporters of the increased license fees say the new funds will allow for the full payment, although more and more teenagers will be taking the training course in the coming years.

Thieves Steal Out Of Court

LANSING (AP) — Thieves are coming into Lansing's Municipal Court without any police urging—and leaving without being noticed.

At first it seemed as if items were being misplaced, but Court Clerk Albert Kirschenbauer went to the police Friday to report a $25 space heater was missing from the jury room.

"It was behind two locked doors," he added.

Earlier, missing items included a judge's overshoes, a pen knife, an ash tray, a clock and a hat, Kirschenbauer said.

"We had a judge from out of town hearing a case and when he came from a recess his pipe and tobacco pouch were gone," he said.

Tourist Council To Film Skiers

HOLLAND (AP) — Wesley Tebeau of Muskegon, chairman of the Michigan Tourist Council, announced the council will produce a 15-minute sound and color movie of Michigan winter vacation and tourist attractions, with the emphasis on skiing.

The film will be shot this winter. It will replace a winter sports film made by the council in 1962.

The council, meeting at Holland, also honored Leonard Reimer, Alton, for what it called its continuing promotional efforts in behalf of Michigan's tourist industry.

Wallace Looks To '68

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Notes from the crowded political trail:

Seasoned onlookers in Alabama and Mississippi insist that retiring Gov. George C. Wallace, whose wife Lurleen is the Democratic nominee to succeed him, has his cap set for a presidential try in 1968.

Since Lurleen is favored to win in November, Wallace would have the necessary base as governor in fact if not name—from which to launch a presidential campaign in the Old South and the industrial North.

Analysts already are speculating that Wallace might easily pick up, as a minimum, the five Old South states captured in 1964 by Republican Barry Goldwater. Anti-Johnson feeling would normally make some if not all of these states—South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana—strong bets for the GOP, especially if Richard Nixon should be the nominee.

The political life of Alabama's Sen. John Sparkman appears to be in fresh peril. The expected Republican nominee for his seat, John Grenier, former Goldwater lieutenant, is rated a stiff threat.

Sparkman had thought the worst was over when an earlier prospective challenger, GOP Rep. James Martin, bowed out and chose to run for governor. Among Martin's reasons was his inability to get top business money for a Senate race. Grenier is said to have good money sources outside Alabama.

For some months now, White House correspondents, dogging President Johnson's heels have been baying at him in San Antonio rather than Austin when he goes to his ranch. They like the town fine, but their joy ends right there.

Though San Antonio is only five miles farther from the ranch than Austin, the newsmen say they feel totally cut off. "Might as well be in Detroit," says one.

Official briefings are skimpy, limited sometimes to routine announcements; the reporters think should come from federal agencies. In Austin, they occasionally encountered a Johnson crony and thus preserved an illusion of nearness to LBJ, though he was 60 miles away.

The most embittered reporters do not believe "complaints about Austin facilities" were the real cause of the switch. They think the President wants them more isolated. Few have been to the ranch in many, many months.

Not since the days of maverick "Big Jim" Duff, former governor and U.S. senator, has there been so much turmoil in Pennsylvania politics. The cause, Milton Shapp, surprise winner of the 1966 Democratic governorship nomination.

The Doctor Says:

Mumps Rarely Serious

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt

Mumps, an acute infection of the parotid salivary glands, is rarely a serious childhood disease but occasionally may cause meningitis or encephalitis (brain fever). Recovery from these complications is the rule but sometimes they leave the child with some degree of deafness.

When a boy escapes mumps until adolescence or adulthood the disease may "go down" and cause an acute inflammation of the testicles. Inflammation of the ovaries in older girls may also occur but is much rarer.

This involvement of the sex glands can be prevented by keeping the victim in bed during the acute stage of the parotid swelling. A reader writes to say that his younger brother had this complication and to ask whether this would prevent his becoming a father later in life. In both boys and girls, there is no permanent damage to the sex glands and no interference with subsequent parenthood.

When the hard swelling of the parotid begins to subside, strict bed rest is no longer necessary or advisable. A day-by-day increase in activity will help the victim to get his strength back.

PRIZE CONTESTS

"Count the dots and win a color TV!"

So said the poster in a furniture store window. In case of a tie, duplicate prizes were to be awarded.

Sure enough, two contestants—a man and a woman—turned in answers that were exactly right. After due deliberation, the store named the woman as the winner on grounds of "neatness and legibility." The man was offered a small radio as a consolation prize.

But when the man filed suit, the court held that he too was entitled to a television set. The court said the store had no right to make new rules after the contestants, by submitting their entries, had already accepted the original offer.

For the contract created in a prize contest is just as binding, in the eyes of the law, as any other kind of contract. A winning contestant can enforce his rights in court.

But suppose the rules say: "The decision of the contest judges shall be final."

Even then, if the judges tamper with the rules or use other trickery to foil a winner, the law will still uphold his claim to whatever he has legitimately won.

On the other hand, you cannot insist on a prize if you yourself have not lived up to the rules. For example:

A car dealer offered a valuable gift certificate as first prize in a drawing. But according to the rules of the contest, ticket stubs had to be deposited "in person" at the dealer's showroom.

As it turned out, the holder of the winning number had sent his stub in by messenger. A court ruled later that, since he had not complied with the terms of the offer, he had not earned a right to the prize.

What if the contest is an illegal lottery? Then, even if you do win, you should not expect a court to enforce your claim. As a general rule, the courts will not lend their aid to carry out an illegal contract.

The Supreme Court has given the reason:

"No court of justice can be made the handmaid of iniquity. There can be no legal remedy for that which is itself illegal." 1966 American Bar Association

Dear Ann Landers: I am a 16-year-old girl who has a 17-year-old problem. His name is not Derrick but I will call him that. And will you please say we live in High Point, because we really live somewhere else, and I want to confuse people.

On our first date, Derrick took me to the movies. He paid my way and bought me popcorn. On our second date we went to the movies again and Derrick asked me if I would mind paying for myself because he was short on cash. I said, "O.K. He bought the popcorn. On our third date we went to the movies once more and Derrick asked me if I would mind paying for him, too, because he had left his money at home. I bought the popcorn.

Last night was our fourth date. When we approached the box-office he said, "I am broke. How about you treating me?" I said, "O.K." He added, "Don't forget the popcorn."

What do you think of a romance like this? Should I continue? — BRICKTOP

Dear Miss Brick: Romance? Derrick likes the flicks and popcorn — in that order. And he doesn't seem to be particularly bashful about mooching off a girl, which is really rock bottom.

This could hardly be called a "romance." It's a freeloading operation, baby, and you'd better know it.

Dear Ann: Please print this letter. It might stop someone else from wrecking his life. My wife's name is Ann, too, so this letter starts just right.

I was married less than a year but I drove my wife away because I didn't have sense enough to treat her the way she deserved to be treated. I was too selfish and bull-headed to see what I was doing.

Instead of being pleased when others admired her I was jealous and resentful. I must have been out of my mind to say some of the things I did. She never once defended herself or argued. She had the patience of a saint.

But she left when she just couldn't take any more. And now I would get down on my knees in front of the whole world and beg her to come back if I thought it would do any good. I know now that it's slow death being without the one you love.

Mine Road Funds Denied

The Michigan State Highway Commission today announced that no state trunkline funds will be expended for construction of the White Pine Mine (Tolfree) Road in Ontonagon County without approval by the attorney-general.

A $1.4 million item calling for a $500,000 appropriation from the 1966-67 state trunkline fund and the balance in successive years to match federal funds to build the 13-mile road was approved by the Legislature.

Questioning the legality of the appropriation, State Highway Commissioner Ardale Ferguson, and Commissioners Wallace Nunn and Richard VanderVein jointly opposed the Legislature's action.

"This action by the Legislature is an invasion of the executive prerogative of the Michigan State Highway Commission and represents a return to decisions on the location of highway construction based on political influence," the commissioners said.

The Legislative directive to spend state funds for this specific purpose would set a "serious precedent" and "creates an imbalance in the highway distribution formula for distributing highway funds to the units of government," the commission said.

Tolfree Road is a county road connecting routes M-106 and M-64 west of Ontonagon. It runs through White Pine Copper Co. mine property in the western part of the Upper Peninsula.

The U.S. Economic Area Development Administration approved a $1.4 million grant for the reconstruction of the road provided Ontonagon County could provide a matching sum.

Gov. George Romney signed a bill appropriating $1.4 million from state highway funds for Ontonagon County's share of the $2.8 million project after the county said it could not finance the project. The road is sought to provide worker access to new mine shafts of the copper company, which is expanding its employment by about 1,000 workers. It is the largest employer in the western Upper Peninsula.

Gambler's Son Found Hanged

DETROIT (AP) — The 21-year old son of accused gambler Costas Colacacides was found dead Sunday, hanging from a clothesline in his apartment.

Police Sgt. John Dorn said the death of George Colacacides was self-inflicted.

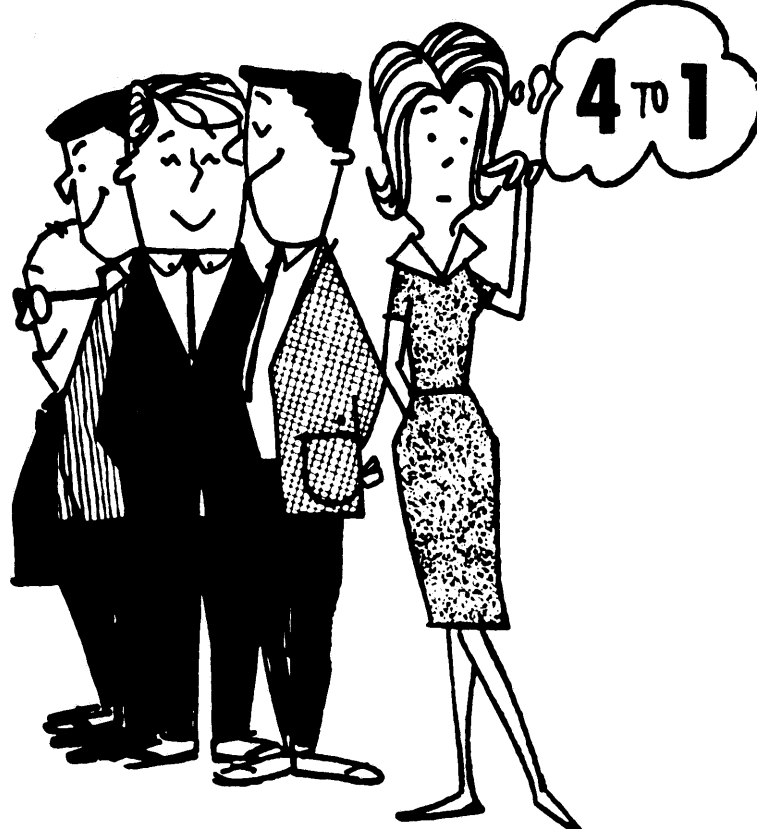

The victim's father, owner of Detroit's Grecian Gardens restaurant, is awaiting trial on bribery charges brought by Judge Edward Piggins. Wayne County's grand juror Colacacides was accused of bribing a policeman to conceal gambling at the restaurant.

DETROIT (AP) — Filling station attendant Edward Need, 27, of Detroit, said he was kidnapped at gunpoint and robbed of $204 by six men Sunday. Need said the bandits let him out of the car six blocks away from the station.

MIDLAND (AP) — If the next jazz pianist you see on television wears his collar backward, don't assume he's putting you on. He might be an Episcopal clergyman.

In fact he might be The Rev. Thomas Vaughn, curate of St. John's Episcopal Church in Midland.

The Rev. Mr. Vaughn, who swings between the rectory and the recording studio, plans TV appearances on nighttime network shows in the next month or so.

The priest, who signed a contract with a major recording company last October, has brought out an album of tunes his trio recorded at New York's Village Gate.

The trio, fresh from this year's Newport Jazz Festival "We broke the audience up" is to participate in the Detroit Jazz Festival Aug. 7.

The Rev. Mr. Vaughn contends "there's a tremendous amount of joy and understanding in jazz," but stresses that his church comes first.

"The music is over and above my work in the church," he says. "How much I do depends on how much my health can take."

He says he doesn't accept music engagements that would conflict with his religious duties, and he doesn't play in bars.

"I never did work commercial gigs," he explains. "I've always been independent and I'm certainly not going out to play 'Melancholy Baby' for some drunks."

Temperatures of the moon reach minus 280 degrees on the dark side, while the light side bakes at 260 degrees.

Luci Selects Wedding Attire For Attendants

WASHINGTON (AP) — Luci Johnson has picked floor-length, stentime more dresses in blending shades of pink for her 12 bridesmaids, with matching illusion veils that flow to the floor.

She has decided that her high noon church wedding Aug. 6 to Patrick J. Nugent of Waukegan, Ill., will have a pink and white theme. Her own dress, picked weeks ago — an elegant long gown — is being kept secret until the wedding day.

President Johnson, the bridegroom and the 12 groomsmen will wear traditional morning attire — Oxford gray cutaway coats and striped gray and black trousers.

Still to be announced by the White House is the attire of the First Lady, the mother of the bride, Mrs. Johnson; and the gown of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Gerald P. Nugent.

The bridesmaids' gowns are the design of Priscilla of Boston, a New York and Boston firm headed by Mrs. James (Priscilla) Kidder, who has specialized in bridal clothes for more than 30 years.

They were picked by practical Lucie with two things in mind: they had to be dresses that could be worn again and everything had to be "within a budget the bridesmaids could afford."

In announcing the wedding attire Saturday night, the First Lady's press secretary, Elizabeth Carpenter, said it was traditional for bridesmaids to pay for their own dresses, and Luci's bridesmaids would be no exception. On the question of how much the gowns cost, Mrs. Carpenter dodged with the comment: "We don't put a price tag on romance."

The groomsmen, and probably the bridegroom, too, will rent their cutaways. Mrs. Carpenter said she didn't know what the President would do about getting his morning outfit.

The long dresses Luci picked for her bridesmaids have a molded silhouette bodice, casing into a stentime-shaped skirt which flows slightly in the back for comfort in walking. That's important since the bride party will have to negotiate long flights of steps and a 400-foot aisle in the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, site of the wedding.

The high neckline of the gown has a rolled "wedding-ring" shape which also is carried out on the edges of the semi-length sleeves and the hemline. There are matching fabric buttons for back accent.

Luci's sister, Lynda, 22, the maid of honor, and the matron of honor, close friend Mrs. James Ray of Hale Center, Tex., will wear gown of pale frosted pink, with their veils in shaded hues of pink.

The gathered illusion—delicate net lace—veils are worn at the back of the head, shown by the designer with a high up-swept hairdo. But Luci's bridesmaids will pick any hairstyles they prefer, Mrs. Carpenter said.

Matching pink shoes go with the costume.

The bride's attendants also will wear wrist-length white kid gloves. Pearl earrings will be their only jewelry.

Luci will carry a bridal bouquet of lilies of the valley, greenhouse-grown by White House gardeners. The bridesmaids will have nosegays of lilies of the valley from the White House supply, along with blended pink roses in different shades. They're being designed by White House florists.

Luci had the aid of family friend Stanley Marcus, president of the Neiman-Marcus de-

Carol Peppler Bride Of David P. Klasell

Miss Carol Sue Peppler of Alpena became the bride of David Paul Klasell of Escanaba in a ceremony performed Saturday, July 16 at the Bethany Lutheran Church in Escanaba.

The Rev. Dr. Walfred E. Nelson officiated at the double ring nuptials at 3 o'clock in the afternoon before an altar adorned with bouquets of white gladioli.

Providing traditional organ music for the ceremony was Don Aronson.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Peppler of 516 Robin Ave., Alpena and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Klasell, 1100 5th Ave. S., Escanaba.

The bride, chose for her wedding, a two piece ivory suit of basketweave wool with antique lace trim. An ivory pillbox hat held her blusher veil and she carried a cascade arrangement of red and white sweetheart roses.

Honor attendants for the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Klasell and seating the guests were Neil Carlson and James Hornblad.

The matron of honor was attired in a light green linen sheath with white accessories and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mother's Attire For attending her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Peppler wore a beige nylon sheer dress with beige and white accessories and she was presented a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Klasell chose a light green dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses completed her attire.

A reception for the couple was held immediately following the ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Following a wedding trip to the Keweenaw Peninsula, the newlyweds will reside in Marquette where Mr. Klasell will attend Northern Michigan University.

The bride is a graduate of Alpena High School and is employed by the General Telephone Co. Mr. Klasell graduated from Escanaba Area High School and was employed by the Abitibi Corporation.

Dear Heloise: For a cute gift, the next time you make an apron, use either store-bought put holders, or make your own. Then make outer coverings of the apron material to cover each pot holder.

This makes a lovely coordinated set. When buying socks for your husband or children, try buying several pairs of the same color or design.

This eliminates the need of pairing socks. Also, when one sock gets a hole in it, you can just discard it and still have another to pair it with.

Negotiations Are Continuing

The Escanaba Division pulp and paper mill of Mead Corp. at Groos was operating fully this morning, a spokesman reported, after walkout of the 31 members of Local 979 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers last Friday afternoon.

The mill's Boney Falls hydroplant water-powered generators were shut down for lack of attendants and the company said no further talks with the electricians on a new contract to replace the one which expired May 31 have been scheduled yet.

The main mill force of 800 is provided by Local 209, United Papermakers and Paperworkers, and by Local 110, International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers.

Local 209 at a membership meeting in the Oddfellows Hall Sunday evening voted authorization for a strike in support of its bargaining committee.

The Local's negotiators will meet with mill representatives Tuesday in continuing negotiations on a new labor contract to replace the one which expired May 31.

Local 110 representatives will meet again with company representatives in the continuing negotiations on a new contract on Wednesday.

Minor damage to a common carrier truck in the millyard was described by Sheriff Cully Johnson as an accident. Truck-line drivers take trucks to the yard and company administrative personnel take them in. One of the temporary drivers backed a truck trailer into a tree.

Remove Auto Keys, Police Tell Motorists

Motorists who park their cars in Escanaba should remove the keys and lock the doors in compliance with a city ordinance, Police Chief Harold Finman said today.

"Keys left in autos are an invitation to joy riders, and there have been too many complaints lately of cars being driven away by juveniles," the chief reported.

Officers will begin checking cars to see if they are locked and the keys removed, Chief Finman warned.

Menominee County Tour Aug. 6

Top Farm County To Show Its Best

Livestock, field crops, Christmas trees and mink — all will be highlighted at the sixth annual Upper Peninsula Farm Management Tour in Menominee County Saturday, Aug. 6.

Visitors can see any or all of six selected tour farms in the morning, according to Richard T. Hartwig, agricultural economist for Michigan State University's Cooperative Extension Service.

Then, after an 11:30 luncheon at the Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Birch Creek, the tour will swing to the 150-cow, 520-acre Philbeck Brothers farm, five miles north of Menominee and two miles west on Elmwood Road. A special program including a discussion of the dairy business and the Philbeck operation, will be included at this stop.

At 3 o'clock, three of the six farms that were toured in the morning will again be open to visitors, said Hartwig.

Six Farm Stops
The following is a run-down of the six selected tour farms. The Veraghen, Berger and Bert farms can be toured at both 10 a.m. and 3 p.m., while the others will open only in the morning.

—Walter Veraghen, one-fourth mile south of Powers (a.m. and p.m.). He has 60,000 sheared Christmas trees. The tour will include a demonstration on weed control to reduce tree failure in planting and to increase rate of tree growth. There will also be a demonstration on improving tree coloring with green colorant spray.

—Felix Veraghen, two miles east of Nathan (a.m. only). Fifty steers are fed out each year using a farm-grown ration of corn silage, hay, homegrown grain and a purchased protein supplement.

Comfort Barn
—Charles Berger, one and one-half miles west of Bagley (a.m. and p.m.). A 57-stall comfort barn, which Berger built three years ago at nominal expense, milking parlor and an outdoor hay feeding lot will be featured at this stop.

—Oren Berto, one mile north of Talbot (a.m. and p.m.). He has four barley variety trials, a barley fertilization trial, an alfalfa fertilization trial, a corn fertility trial and a minimum tillage trial.

—Walter Menza, one mile west of Daggett (a.m. only). He grows 12 acres of foundation White Russet potatoes each year. The potatoes are certified and shipped to Colorado and other states for seed.

—Gerald Theuerkauf, one mile east of Hansen (a.m. only). This farm has over 5,000 mink, including approximately 1,000 females. Each mink is fed three times daily and eats about 100 pounds of cereal and meat per year.

Local arrangements for the tour are being made by Gail Bowers, county Extension agricultural agent, Menominee.

Dartland Opposes Senator

Mack Act Called 'Hoax'

Atty. Walter Dartland of Houghton, who is opposing State Senator Joseph Mack of Ironwood for the Democratic nomination for state senator in the 38th District in the western Upper Peninsula, today charged Mack with a "hoax."

"It is little known," said Dartland in a statement "that there is a $3 million investment exemption in Senator Mack's mineral taxation bill. This is being de-emphasized in Senator Mack's press releases, hiding the fact that the large mining interests will profit to the detriment of small companies.

"This will only increase the large mining company interests as others, who cannot afford to hold their interests, are forced to lease to large companies who could hold the rights indefinitely, withholding development. The long term effect would be a growing stranglehold on the U.P. by a few interests with the power to control the economy, restrict development and control labor."

"Mack's continuous efforts to exempt powerful mining groups from pollution control, state highway fund supervision and other things clearly shows who runs the U.P."

N. Viet Threats Court Disaster Red Cross Told

GENEVA (AP)—The United States told the International Red Cross Committee today there will be "disastrous consequences" if North Viet Nam carries out threats to put captive American airmen on trial.

Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg, permanent U.S. representative to the United Nations, delivered the warning from the United States in a meeting with Roger Gallepin, executive director of the neutral, all-Swiss committee.

Goldberg told reporters after the meeting: "I informed the Red Cross that in the view of the U.S. government there can be no doubt that the Geneva Conventions on the treatment of prisoners of war fully apply to the Viet Nam conflict."

Selling Hits At Pound Sterling

LONDON (AP)—Britain's shaky pound sterling came under renewed pressure on the money market today, and heavy selling on the London stock market caused prices there to fall also.

The fate of the pound is at stake. The reaction of the world's markets to the British government's squeeze on the nation's economy was being closely watched.

The pound began moving downward half an hour after the foreign exchange opened. It slid to $2.7667, lower than the Friday night close.

Forward market rates also moved against the pound, and the Bank of England was reported giving support to the pound there. This seemed to steady the market a little.

Golden Passport Park Permit Is Available In U.P.

A pamphlet newly released by the U. S. Forest Service explains how Americans can help provide outdoor recreation areas. By purchasing a Golden Passport, successor to the recreation-conservation sticker introduced in 1965—Americans contribute to the Land and Water Conservation Fund and help federal and state agencies to acquire or develop more public recreation areas.

The pamphlet lists the designated recreation areas within 15 national forests in the Eastern Region where visitors are required to have the entry permit. The Golden Passport, costing $7 gives entry to more than 7,000 federal recreation areas across the nation.

The pamphlet is obtainable from the U. S. Forest Service supervisor offices in Escanaba or from the district forest ranger offices in Barab, Manistique, Munising, St. Ignace and Manistique.

'Just Raising Hell':

Charge Youths Maliciously Broke Car, Store Windows

BY CLINT DUNATHAN

Police in Escanaba today were continuing to list victims of five Delta County youths who "just wanted to raise hell in general" and smashed scores of auto windows and glass in two stores early Saturday.

"We don't know what the total damage is as yet," said Police Chief Harold Finman. "We are asking owners of damaged cars to obtain a duplicate copy of their repair bills and turn it over to police."

Unofficially the estimated damage for a few hours of "hell raising" may run to $20,000.

Escanaba police took five youths into custody at 10:15 a.m. Saturday on Ludington St. They were riding in a blue car with a noisy exhaust.

Two In Jail

Two of the young men are 18 years old and were arraigned in Justice A. J. Mortier's court at Gladstone on Saturday on charges of malicious destruction of property.

They are Phillip R. Lanaville, Cornell Rte. 1, owner of 1960 automobile in which the youths were riding; and Michael B. Kossow, Gladstone Rte. 1.

Both waived examination to the charge and were bound to Delta County Circuit Court for trial.

Wisconsin Man Charged With Robbing Widow

David Andrew Patrick, 31, of Milwaukee, has been charged with the embezzlement of $2,600 from Mrs. Mary Tolman, Escanaba widow, who identified Patrick in a line-up at Waukesha, Wis., recently.

Mrs. Tolman, accompanied by Escanaba police, recently was taken to Waukesha where the identification was made. Patrick had been arrested in Wisconsin for a similar crime and is to stand trial there.

Authorities said that Patrick poses as a detective and asks the cooperation of his victims in supplying him with "marked money" to obtain an arrest. Mrs. Tolman's life-savings were not recovered.

Patrick is wanted for a variety of offenses — including failure to support his wife and children.

Lumber Fire Loss Set At $250,000

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Fire Chief Adrian Meyers Sunday estimated the loss at $250,000 in a blaze that ripped through the Grand Rapids Lumber Co., injuring three firemen.

Firemen continued to search for the cause of the fire that ruined a lumber shed, a prefabricated structure, a box car and lumber supplies Saturday night. Some 70 firemen fought the flames.

Fire Capt. John Heemstra was treated and released at a hospital after inhaling smoke.

Also treated and released were Lt. Melvin Faber whose eyes were singed by flames in the hours-long blaze and fireman John DeBlay who suffered a temporary loss of vision after the fire.

The fire disrupted power for a time to a section of southeastern Grand Rapids where the lumber firm is located.

Lansing City Workers Strike

LANSING (AP)—Some 250 unionized city employees went out on strike today after contract negotiations ended abruptly with union representatives accusing the city of unethical labor practices.

Members of Local 1390 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) set up picket lines at city hall and other municipal offices at midnight.

Bargaining ended Sunday night after Jerry Wurf, international president of the AFSCME, claimed he had been assaulted by an attorney for the city and accused the city of using tape recorders and plainclothes policemen to harass the union.

"There is some strange conspiracy going on here to evade dealing with us, hoping that we would say something somehow that would discredit the union, and the city could escape its responsibility," Wurf said, as he walked out of negotiations at city hall.

Wurf arrived from Washington yesterday afternoon to help the union reach its first contract with the city before the strike deadline. The union last year won the right to bargain for some 400 persons employed by the city's civic center, public service, parks and recreation and traffic departments.

Briefly Told

The Hengsh Standard Service Station in Escanaba was broken into Saturday night and pennies are missing from the cash register, it was reported to Escanaba police. Entrance was made by forcing open a window on the north side of the building.

James Valiquette, 1010 9th Ave. S., was fined $20 and assessed costs of $3.70 Saturday after he pleaded guilty before Justice A. J. Mortier to a careless operation of a motorboat charge brought by Conservation officers. Valiquette was charged in connection with an incident near the Gladstone bathing beach a week ago in which a driverless motorboat ran widely in circles, forcing lifeguards to clear the water at the beach.

Traffic court summonses have been issued by Escanaba police to Francis J. Schiller, Muskegon, failing to stop in the assured clear distance; Emanuel L. Tardiff, Ypsilanti, careless driving; Michael F. Grenier, 2101 8th Ave. S., no vehicle license; Vic A. DesJardin Jr., 1502 1st Ave. S., no operator's license on person; Michael J. Gannon, 426 S. 15th St., speeding and defective lights; John D. Lewis, 505 S. 19th St., Theodore F. DeBauche, Gladstone, Nancy J. Soderman, 1121 Montana, Gladstone, Ormand K. McKennon, Flint, all for speeding.

night and may have indirectly resulted in the apprehension of the youths.

The insulation on the copper wire was burned off by the youths, and they then took the wire to an Escanaba junk dealer on Saturday morning and were paid $45 for it by check. They were in downtown Escanaba to cash the check when they were arrested by police for malicious destruction of property.

Police said that in some instances persons reported that a noisy, blue car was in the vicinity where stones had been thrown through the windshields and windows of parked automobiles.

Had Been Drinking

Police reported the youths came to Escanaba and picked up stones and bricks to use as missiles. Some stones were in the Lanaville car at the time of the arrest.

Officers said they were told that the youths had been drinking beer, which had been obtained for them by an older person not with them on their ride around town.

The theft of the wire at Harbour's followed a ride of one or two hours in Escanaba. After burning the insulation off the wire they slept for a couple of hours and then drove downtown.

Police said they could not understand why the youths had broken so many windows, including plate glass in Norm's IGA Store and Nelson's Cash Market. Officers said the youths denied having a "grudge" against anyone and had "just wanted to raise hell in general."

flights the figuring was done mainly by computers on the ground, which will be a backup this time.

"If you're going to go to the moon," Young explained, "you have to have this ability in the event that there's no contact with the ground. Certainly, if you're going to the planets you've got to have on-board navigation capability."

An hour after catching the Agena 10 — shortly before midnight — Young is to insert the nose of Gemini 10 into a docking collar on one end of the 26-foot Agena, clamping the two vehicles firmly together.

Two repeat dockings are slated the next day — one by each astronaut.

Young and Collins are the 21st and 22nd Americans ticketed to fly into space. They also are the eighth two-man Gemini crew set to go aloft in 16 months — a period during which the Russians have made no manned launches.

The United States now holds nearly every man-in-space record. However, cautious American officials say they cannot evaluate who is ahead in the moon race until the Soviet Union has another cosmonaut mission — which should tip their hand as to their capabilities and future plans.

Two more Gemini flights are scheduled — in September and October. After that, the first of the three-man Apollo moon ships is to be fired into earth orbit. The Apollo program is aimed at a manned lunar landing in 1968 or 1969.

Record Crowd Sees Iversons Top Racers

It was Iverson night Saturday in the modified division of the U.P. Stock Car Association racing program on the U.P. State Fairgrounds track.

Before a record crowd of 2,778, Herb Iverson and Bob Iverson traded victories in the modified heats, semi-feature and feature.

Five different drivers won events in the stock program with Jim Barron of Escanaba outlasting the field to win the 20-lap feature.

Fastest times during trials were turned by Gerry Richer of Escanaba, 19.88 seconds in the modified division, and Mary Danielson of Wakefield, 22.57 seconds in the stock division.

The program was highlighted with two-car battles for race leadership in both divisions and a near-serious mishap on the first lap of the stock feature.

Herb Iverson and Glen Coleman exchanged the lead for the first seven laps of the first modified heat, until Iverson took over to stay. Bob Iverson won the second modified heat.

It was Herb Iverson again in the modified semi-feature after taking the lead from Orville Valiquette on the sixth lap. Bob Iverson duelled with Gerry Richer, time trial winner, for 15 laps of the feature for modified until Richer broke an axle on his car. Second place in the feature went to Art Richer with Ken Iverson third and Allen Yelle of Marquette fourth.

Stock division heat winners were DeLoyd Cousineau of Marquette, Gerald LaFave and Wayne Levine, both of Escanaba.

Tom Warren easily rolled to victory in the stock semi-feature, but it was a different story in the final race.

Coming around the far turn for completion of the first lap, Clem Landquist's car was turned on its side, but instead of going over, he came back down just as Barron was passing. Barron escaped with only a slight dent in the roof of his car, but the race was halted to clear the track.

Barron shot in front after the restart and held off Jim Deifavero of Wakefield and Fred Horrocks of Gwinn for the victory. Deifavero finished second, Horrocks third and Ken Vau of Escanaba fourth.

Next program will feature a demolition derby Wednesday night. The cats will also run Saturday.

U.S. Swimmers Defeat Soviets

MOSCOW (AP) — "Our kids just had a little more experience," Coach Don Gambrell said today after his American swimming team took an 11-6 unofficial victory over Russia Sunday.

The strong Soviet squad set two world records in defeat.

Gambrell called the Soviet team much improved over their showing at the 1964 Olympics in Tokyo and predicted they would be tough to beat at the 1968 Olympics.

The American men edged the Russians 6-4, and the U.S. girls coasted by the Soviet women 5-2 according to the unofficial tally.

The Soviets called the two-day meet at the open-air Lenin Stadium pool a friendly match between swimmers, not nations. They kept no team score.

The Americans unofficially kept score by awarding one point to the winner in each event. There were four American double winners.

Soviet girls set the world record in the 100-meter breaststroke Saturday.

Irina Podsvakova, 13, set a new mark of 2:43.0 in the 200-meter breaststroke Saturday.

Tigers Move Wrong Way, Tribe Sweeps

DETROIT (AP) — "When you're concerned about your bullpen in the first place, it's a little harder to make the moves you'd like to," said acting manager Frank Skaiff Sunday after the Detroit Tigers took a double drubbing from Cleveland.

The Indians, losing 11 of their last 12 games, and carrying a five-game losing streak into the opening game, collected 34 hits in scoring 7-3 and 15-2 victories. Skaiff's hopes of getting complete games out of Hank Aguirre and Joe Sparna failed miserably, with neither lasting more than six innings.

Sparna was routed in the third inning of the second game when the Indians hit three of their seven homers and took a 6-0 lead.

Tebbetts Grateful
"I'll take all the runs we go and say thank you," said Indians Manager Birdie Tebbetts.

"But I'm sorry a crowd like this (39,244) had to see such bad games. It doesn't do anybody any good when they are that one-sided," Tebbetts added. "I am happy, though, that the Tigers stuck with it and didn't get mad. Some other teams might have started to throw at our hitters."

Skaiff shrugged off the losses by saying it was just one of those days when everything the opposition was hitting was a shot.

"I know our pitchers are tired," Skaiff said. "I was trying to go with the starters as long as possible."

"Take that first game, for instance," Skaiff continued. "I start to get a pitcher warmed up as soon as Aguirre hits Fred Whitfield. But before I can get him in — bang — they've got four runs."

Azcue Leads Rally
Joe Azcue batted in four runs — three of them with a home run in a five-run sixth inning — to lead the Cleveland assault in the opener.

Chuck Hinton, who hit a solo homer in the opener, and Rocky Colavito each had a pair of round-trippers in the nightcap as the Indians got 21 hits. It was the most given up by Detroit pitchers in eight years.

Buddy Booker, Max Alvis and Leon Wagner hit the other homers for Cleveland in the second game as the Indians fell one short of tying the league record.

Jim Northrup homered for the Tigers in the second game and Ray Oyler knocked in the other run with a double.

Detroit runs in the first game were scored on a wild pitch and sacrifice flies by Willie Horton and Don Wert.

Face Baltimore
Skaiff will have more than his pitching staff to worry about when the Tigers open a lengthy road trip in Baltimore Tuesday night.

Al Kaline complained of stomach troubles, in addition to his strained back muscle, and Dick McAuliffe was sent home during the second game because of dizzy spells.

Neither appeared in Sunday's games and Skaiff said he did not know when either would be available. McAuliffe hasn't played since the All-Star game.

Lanny Johnston's 74 Tops Nahma Tourney

NAHMA—Lanny Johnston of the Escanaba Highland Golf Club bested a field of 120 golfers Sunday to win the 6th annual Nahma Open.

Johnston posted nines of 38-36 for an 18-hole score of 74 and a one stroke victory over Jack Smith, also of Highland. Smith bogeyed the final three holes for a 75.

Finishing in a four-way tie for third over the windswept course were Dean Roddy, Gladstone; Dave Freits, Highland; Al Martin, Chicago, and Warren Lasley, Flint, all with 77s.

Ed Terres of Escanaba and Bob King of Naubinway tied with net 61s to pace the handicap division. One stroke back at 65 were Bill Potter, Iron Mountain, Mugs Gungrass, Marquette, and Ben Hemingway, Munising. Dick Manske of Escanaba had a net 67 for sixth place.

The course was hard and dry and some golfers played the 447-yard, par 5 second hole with 310-yard drives and a wedge to the green.

Johnston's 74 was the lowest score in the history of the tournament. The previous record was 76, set by Jack Smith in 1961.

Clendenon Surge Pushes Pirates To League Lead

By The Associated Press
Four professional teams in three sports once pursued Donn Clendenon. Now a number of teams would like to pursue him right out of the National League.

Clendenon continued his torrid pace Sunday as the Pittsburgh Pirates swept a doubleheader from San Francisco 7-4 and 7-1 and replaced the Giants in first place in the National League pennant race.

The double victory vaulted the Pirates one game ahead of the Giants, who had been out of the top spot for only four of the previous 71 days. The teams conclude their three-game series tonight.

Clendenon was a baseball, basketball and football star in his high school and college days. He was all-state in Georgia in all three sports in his senior year and went on to win a total of 12 letters at Morehouse College.

Chose Pirates
Upon graduation he was sought by the Harlem Globetrotters.

Clendenon hit a two-run homer in the sixth inning of the opener and scored on Bill Mazeroski's double, then powered a three-run outburst in the eighth with a triple. Willie McCovey a two-run homer for San Francisco.

Clendenon hit a two-run homer in the eighth inning, belting a single, double, triple and homer, in that order, and driving in two runs and scoring four. Orlando Cepeda homered for the Cardinals.

Advisory Group Urged By Varnum In Surf Address

More citizen participation in state government is needed, Charles Varnum, candidate for the House of Representatives in Michigan's 107th District, told the Manistique Jaycees Saturday night at The Surf. "State government is not effective unless it accurately represents the choice of the people," Varnum told the Jaycees, their wives, and Jaycee boosters. To back up his plea for more citizen participation in state government, Varnum outlined a plan for a citizen's advisory committee. The group would consist of representatives of labor, business, education, local government and senior citizens. Similar groups would be formed in each of the 4 counties in the 107th Representative District, which includes parts of Chippewa, Delta and Schoolcraft counties and all of Luce. Varnum explained to the group that the advisory group would allow consistent communications with each county. At the same time, the committee would act as a channel reflecting the activities of state government back to the community. Varnum said he hopes to implement the plan if he is elected in November. Varnum also touched on crime, traffic safety, and the Mackinac Bridge Tolls, which have been a favorite topic for the candidate. Varnum is 33, a school teacher, is married with 2 children, and is a Hillsdale College graduate.

Richey Ignores Leg Pain, Wins

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — When it was over Cliff Richey, 19, ignored the pain in his legs and tossed his racket high in the air.

The Texas teen-ager had won a major prize—the National Clay Courts men's singles—and he knew what it meant.

"This was a big tournament," said Richey, who could soon be pressing Dennis Ralston and Arthur Ashe for top recognition among U.S. amateur players.

"It's the second biggest, next to Forest Hills, in the United States," he said.

Ralston, ranked No. 1, was eliminated in the quarter-finals. He said he plans to quit the amateur tour at the end of the current season. His defection would leave only Ashe, who did not enter the Clay Courts, ahead of the improving Richey.

The 5-foot-8 dynamo from Dallas defeated part-time player Frank Froehling, New York City, 13-11, 6-1, 6-3 in a grueling match that ended with Richey no longer able to maneuver on his muscle-cramped legs.

Richey's older sister, Nancy, won the women's singles for the fourth consecutive year. She defeated Stephanie De Fina, Hollywood, Fla. 6-2, 6-2. Ralston, defending singles champion, salvaged something from the tournament. The Bakersfield, Calif., star teamed with Clark Graebner, Beechwood, Ohio, to defeat Froehling and Charles Pasarell, San Francisco, 6-1, 8-10, 6-4, 6-8, 6-4.

Tiger Tales

DETROIT (AP) — Cleveland Manager Birdie Tebbetts questioned the umpires in the sixth inning of the first game after Jim Northrup of the Tigers tossed his helmet before running out a grounder to the pitching mound.

"I thought it meant automatic ejection from the game, but I found out otherwise," Tebbetts said. "I know the umpires told him about it — he probably wasn't thinking, that's all."

Frank Skaff said he felt Joe Sparna was "throwing some real good pitches in the first two innings of Sunday's second game."

"His curves were sharp and he was hitting the corners. Then, all of a sudden his fast ball straightened out and they are hitting them all over the place," he added.

Tebbetts said that he felt sorry for Sparna.

"There's a kid who looks like he's got all the essentials. It's just too bad he hasn't been able to put them together," he said.

Chuck Hinton, who never before had hit two home runs in a single game, said he had no one to blame but himself for trying for three when he came to bat in the ninth inning of the nightcap.

"I was too tense," Hinton said. "I'd never had two before and I sure wanted three. I should have relaxed."

Hinton fouled to catcher Bill Freehan for the first out of the inning.

Sunday's double hit left the Tigers with a 12-17 record in games with the other top three teams in the league.

Schuitema New Legion Chief

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan's American Legion has named Edwin J. Schuitema of Holland, a World War II Navy veteran, as its new commander.

Schuitema, president of Community Dairy Inc. in Holland, was elected Sunday as the Legion closed its 48th annual state convention. Schuitema has served as chairman of the committee which operates the American Legion Hospital at Battle Creek and has held other key offices in his 20 years in the group.

The 1916 delegates voted to accept veterans of the Viet Nam war as American Legion members. This resolution, being voted on by other state conventions, will be presented to the Legion's national convention in Washington next month.

The delegates also voted support for U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

Other state officers elected were: Gilbert Adams, Newport, finance officer; Harold V. Arnerberg, Caseville, chaplain; Helen E. Beckwith, Lansing, historian; and James B. McGill, sergeant-at-arms.

Thomas A. Kouri of Detroit was reappointed to his sixth consecutive term as adjutant. John J. Roethel of Detroit was appointed as judge advocate.

Mrs. John Penning of Grand Rapids was elected president of the auxiliary of the Michigan American Legion.

Other auxiliary officers elected were: Mrs. George Schultz, Flint, first vice president; Mrs. William Anderson, Sault Ste. Marie, second vice president; Mrs. W. VanCouverden, Detroit, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Albert Wiegand, Escanaba, historian; Mrs. John J. Roethel, Detroit, chaplain; and Mrs. Robert Hughes, Bay City, national committeewoman.

Santa Claus Not For Cary

SOUTHAMPTON, England (AP) — Sorry, Virginia, but Cary Grant says Santa Claus isn't.

Arriving in Southampton on the liner Orleans with his wife Dyan and their four-month-old daughter Jennifer, the English-born actor said there will be none of the old Kris Kringle business for his child.

"I know I will have all the mothers up in arms against me but I agree with Dr. Benjamin Spock that it is wrong to build up something (like Santa Claus) and take it away again," he said.

Yesterday's Stars
